October 2013

Emporio project – Pure lines and a real visual identity

Large Reynobond aluminum cassettes were used for the façade of the Emporio business building to reduce the number of joints. The elegance of the colours combined with the structure of the brushed "BRUSHED" surface offers a charming advantage.

>> More about this project

